

PAULY FENECH

AS SEEN ON

PRESS RELEASE

Australia’s favourite comedian and filmmaker, Pauly Fenech, is back on the road in September 2025 with his brand-new live comedy tour, Make Australia Laugh Again.

Known for iconic roles in Fat Pizza, Housos, Bogan Hunters, and Darradong Local Council, Fenech is bringing his signature brand of irreverent, unfiltered humour to audiences across Australia. With over two decades in entertainment, Pauly promises an unforgettable show packed with wild stand-up, outrageous antics, crowd games, parody songs, never-before-seen footage, and his infamous Thongings. After revealing a more serious side on SAS Australia, Fenech is ready to show fans the full range of his comedic talent in this high-energy, two-hour rollercoaster of laughs, surprises, and a few thought-provoking moments.

But Pauly Fenech isn’t just delivering laughs—he’s holding up a mirror to what it means to be Aussie. His comedy celebrates the raw, honest, often hilariously “bogan” side of our culture, shining a light on the no-nonsense, down-to-earth spirit Australians pride themselves on. It’s the larrikin tradition at its best: irreverent, independent, unpretentious, and unafraid to call bullshit. From the battlefields where Aussies were known for being reliable, brave, and loyal to their mates, to the backyards and pubs of today, Pauly taps into that proud legacy of doing whatever it takes, backing your friends, and not taking life—or yourself—too seriously. Make Australia Laugh Again is more than a comedy show; it’s an invitation for all Australians to let loose, have a laugh, and reconnect with the best of who we are. Don’t miss your chance to see Pauly Fenech live this September—grab your tickets now and get ready to have a bloody good time!

ABOUT PAULY

Pauly Fenech is an Australian comedian, filmmaker, and television personality best known for creating and starring in some of the nation’s most loved and controversial TV series, including Fat Pizza, Housos, Bogan Hunters, and Darradong Local Council. With a career spanning over 20 years, Fenech continues to push boundaries and entertain audiences with his bold, unapologetic style of comedy.

“This isn’t just about me getting laughs—it’s about giving Aussies a chance to let loose and remember what makes us who we are. It’s raw, it’s honest, and it’s bloody funny. If you’re keen for a proper night out with your mates where no one takes themselves too seriously, this show’s for you.” – Pauly Fenech

CONTACT

The Pushworth Group

07 3124 4051

manny@pushworth.com

www.pushworth.com